Entertainment @ T-Mobile District

Caribbean Cinemas VIP
Gives you a movie like no other, with laser projectors, oversized luxury reclines, and a bar.

Toro Verde Urban Park!
120 feet tall, zipline across DISTRITO's entertainment complex, passing through the main fountain and into the Convention District. Be ready to take in the astonishing views of San Juan!

Food & Drinks @ T-Mobile District

Arena Medalla
It's always game night at this two-level, 12,500 square feet ultimate sports restaurant combining our passion for sports, beer, and amazing food all in one roof.

La Barrita del Lado
Right outside the Aloft San Juan. This bar sits right across the open space of Popular Plaza and also serves tapas.

La Central
By renowned chef Mario Pagán is the most exclusive restaurant at Distrito T-Mobile. It honors the Puerto Rican history of the jíbaro and sugar cane mills- the centerpiece of the bar is a conversation starter, as it emulates the traditional alembic.

Sazón Cocina Criolla
In this restaurant, you'll find the most authentic plates that highlight Puerto Rico's true flavors.

Barullo Taberna Española
Travel to the cobblestone streets of Spain (just like in Old San Juan, a few minutes away) and have some tapas and the taste of Spanish Food.

La Burguesía
Is perfect if you're in a mood for a burger – a revolutionized burger, that is, and a shake.

Lupe Reyes
This Mexican inspired restaurant greets you with homemade tortillas and Mezcal, promising an authentic taqueria experience.

Denko Restaurant
Get ready to experience the delicate balance between exotic ingredients and the extraordinary ambiance of a world-class Asian eatery. Our dishes will take you on a sensory journey, combining Japanese, Thai, Chinese, Filipino, and Vietnamese cuisines.

Pudge's Pizza
Because there is no better or more dynamic duo than pizza and beer.

Dulcinea
The place where all sweet dreams are made of. An innovative and vibrant ice cream and churro shop, you'll find it just around the corner of Distrito T-Mobile.

Near Event BEACHES

- Condado Beach
Brings a dose of Miami to Puerto Rico, drawing everyone from celebrities and honeymooning couples to families with small kids.
- Playita del Condado
The quieter, more compact sister of Condado Beach, Playita del Condado is known for the clarity of its waters. What it lacks in size, it makes up for in its beauty – with towering trees lining the back of the beach providing plenty of shade in the morning and early afternoon.
- Escambron Beach
Often touted as one of the finest beaches in San Juan, come the weekend you'd expect families to be out in full force here.
- Isla Verde Beach
A popular San Juan suburb, the beach resort area of Isla Verde is home to some of the best high-end hotels in the city, plus a long stretch of sun-kissed public beach complete with toilet and shower facilities – and a great selection of beachfront restaurants.
- Balneario de Carolina
Perhaps one of Isla Verde's most beloved beaches, Balneario de Carolina is one of a handful of Blue Flag beaches on the island, meaning it's studiously maintained to pristine standards.

MORE AROUND...
Over 270 miles of coastline in Puerto Rico. That translates into nearly 300 beaches to choose from!

Near Event HISTORIC SITE

Experience Old San Juan, in Puerto Rico's capital and center of history and culture.

Blends elements of the Old World (cobblestone streets and colonial architecture) with all the amenities of modern urban life (craft cocktails, contemporary dining, amazing shopping, and vibrant nightlife). Immerse yourself in the culture and explore the wealth of art, food, adventure, and beauty that is waiting to be discovered.

• Historical Landmarks

The Old World comes alive at fortresses like El Morro and San Cristóbal. These impressive citadels are part of the San Juan National Historic Site and are two of the largest fortifications built by the Spaniards in the Caribbean during the 16th century.

Other important landmarks include Museo Casa Blanca (the one-time residence of the family of Juan Ponce de León that was built in 1521), the San Juan Cathedral, the Santa María Magdalena de Pazzis Cemetery, and the Museo de las Américas. Catedral de San Juan that is the second oldest church in America and the world's first archdiocese founded an beside Parque de las Palomas that impress with the gorgeous views of the bay.

Near Event SHOPPING

You'll find a wide variety of shopping in Puerto Rico. Whether you're searching for souvenirs, locally-made hand-crafted items, or major brands, you can peruse and purchase from malls, designer boutiques, and locally-owned shops.

• Condado's laid-back luxury

Means access to everything from upscale shops to exclusive entertainment. Stroll down Ashford Avenue – the Puerto Rican “Fifth Avenue” – where exquisite eateries and opulent shopping await. World-renowned brands such as Cartier, Louis Vuitton, Gucci, Salvatore Ferragamo, and more have a presence on the Avenue, as well as boutiques by local designers like Nono Maldonado, Lisa Thon, Harry Robles, and Eclíptica.

• Plaza Las Américas

Plaza Las Américas in Hato Rey (a district in San Juan) is the largest shopping center in the Caribbean and offers everything from food courts to movie theaters and more than 300 different stores! Whether you're in the market for a luxury item or just want to take an indoor stroll, this will be your one-stop place to shop.

• Mall of San Juan

For a more luxurious shopping experience that includes name brands, head to The Mall of San Juan. There you'll find upscale boutiques including Louis Vuitton, Bulgari, Hugo Boss, Carolina Herrera, and Gucci, to name a few. You'll also discover that this mall likely has many of the stores you'll find at home, such as Zara, Anthropologie, and Bath & Body Works.

Near Event OUTDOOR RECREATION

Companies like Sailing Dreams Yacht Charters, VIP Adventures, and Aqua Adventures offer trips for sailing, parasailing, snorkeling, diving and surfing for individuals or a group. A group kayaks through the Condado Lagoon. By day or by night, you can kayak, paddleboard, and more at the Condado Lagoon.

NEARBY

• Piñones

Roadside food stand-hopping is what Puerto Ricans call chinchorro, something you will have plenty of opportunity to do if you travel the rural roads of Piñones, the region where Carolina is located. The coastal line — one of Puerto Rico's most picturesque drives — runs from Carolina to Loíza, and you can stop at many beaches and food kiosks along the way.

• Yunque / Luquillo Beach and Kiosks

The east is home to El Yunque, the only subtropical rainforest in the United States. Its waterfalls, hiking trails, and panoramic vistas are a nature lover's wonderland.
